IAS CONFERENCE 2010

Wednesday 21st July

The New Immigration Agenda

The day-long conference will be concentrating on developments in immigration, asylum and human rights law and policy and practice under the new government. It will also focus on the future of accreditation and regulation and possible barriers to access to quality legal advice and representation for migrants and refugees.

Speakers will include leading experts in their respective fields.

There will be two keynote speeches and a mixture of plenary sessions and workshops. Delegates will have the opportunity to attend two workshops: one in the first round and one in the second round. Please see programme details on the next page.

Key themes:

- The future of accreditation and regulation
- The linkage between regulation, funding and quality
- The new appeals system
- The points-based system
- Earned citizenship
- Free movement in the EU

Who should attend?

Immigration and asylum law practitioners (including advisers, solicitors and barristers) • Legal, employment and educational advisers • Policymakers and academics • Government officials and NGOs • Community and refugee groups • Employers • Students

6 CPD hours

The conference is accredited with 6 CPD hours by the Bar Standards Board and the Solicitors Regulation Authority and also qualifies for OISC regulated advisers to claim the same number of CPD hours.

Booking fees:

We are pleased to announce that the booking fees have not increased from last year's conference. Materials, lunch and VAT are included in the fee.

Standard: £190

Concessionary: £125 - applies to employees of charities, social enterprises and full-time students. (Evidence of eligibility is required)

Special discount: £50 (only 25 places) - applies to employees of small charities and voluntary organisations with an annual income of less than £250,000 and non-wage earners in receipt of Jobseekers' Allowance and Income Support. (Evidence of eligibility is required)
